WELCOME

Hello! Thank you so much for your interest in Tangible Little Moments Photography! We are a portrait studio in Medford, NJ that specializes in maternity, newborn and family photography. My name is Jena Rae Torres and I am the owner and lead photographer. I live in South Jersey with my husband, Vince, and my westie puppy, Cooper.

I started doing photography because I have very few photos of myself when I was a small child and absolutely zero photos of my mother when she was pregnant with me. Since then, I've made it my mission to work with families to capture their legacy for future generations. I have photographed over 200 families in 2017 and loved every second of it. As your photographer, it is my job to capture your family as they are now and freeze these fleeting moments.
